INTRODUCTION

Pursuant to Article 13 of EU Regulation 679/2016 on the protection of personal data (hereafter referred to as "The Regulation or GDPR"), Acciaierie Venete S.p.A., in its capacity as Data Controller, hereby informs you that the website on which you are browsing uses "cookies" and like technologies to enable improved functioning of its services and provides you all the information relating to the use of such technologies.

2. WHAT ARE COOKIES?

Cookies are short strings of text automatically downloaded to your browser or device, subject to your consent (where necessary), while you browse our site. On each subsequent visit, this allows us to keep track of the user's browsing choices and thereby offer an efficient and targeted experience.

Some cookies collect information to maintain the site's security; others provide information to help us improve its performance; others still can personalise content. Each cookie performs a specific action and may be classified as technical, aggregate analysis or profiling cookies, depending on its function and purpose.

Only technical cookies, which do not collect personal data, will be installed when browsing this site.

For any questions concerning the protection of your Personal Data, you may contact us at the following email address: cookie.policy@acciaierievenete.com

3. WHAT ARE TECHNICAL COOKIES?

These are cookies installed to enable the website to function better and increase its features and performance. These types of cookies are used, for example, to store a user's decision on whether to use cookies on the website. Technical cookies are not used for any other purpose and may be managed directly by Acciaierie Venete or third parties.

These categories of cookies may be used without the user's prior explicit consent and are enabled automatically.

4. DURATION OF THE COOKIES

The cookies on our site are temporary and last until the web page is closed.

This Cookie Policy may be amended from time to time, for example, to reflect the introduction of new sector regulations, the updating or provision of new services or additional technological innovations. The user is therefore invited to consult this text periodically.
